Small Business Support- Dan reported that he is working to bring a variety of musical festivals to the Arrowhead Park, including choirs and bands. He also communicated that they are moving forward with the local bench project and will be pairing with high school art students to get designs for the benches. Dan is working to put a community softball game together as well.

Workforce – Brenda reported that they are pursuing Crane and Silvies schools to promote the Harney Internship Program. She also announced that Alivia Robbins is now interning for High Desert Partnership and will be starting projects that connect youth to businesses.

Infrastructure – Pete gave an update about Broadband, communicating that it is progressing well. He also said that Fiber is being distributed amongst the community.

D. Focus Project: Brownfield Coalition Project:

Keith Ziobron of Cardno introduced a series of information, including EPA Assessment Grants, updates on local Brownfield sites, as well as different county demographics. Since coming to Harney County, they have created an online map of the county with potential Brownfield sites for the community members to use as a tool for development. After getting a variety of feedback from locals, they reported that they would take their findings and report back during the Fall meeting, as well as provide final reports for all Phase 2 sites.

Keith then introduced Alisa Pyszka of Bridge Economic Development who described the stakeholder meetings conducted in the community over the past two days. She was pleased with the turnout from a variety of industries and shared some of the input received in those conversations. Alisa then asked the group to give feedback and additional thoughts about what the current community looks like and where we hope to be in the near future. She mentioned that this is one of the most engaged communities she has worked in and appreciated how clearly participants talked about values and goals.

Denise Rose adjourned the meeting at 8:35 PM.
